What you need to know about Georgia's 2018 Legislative Session

Georgia is currently well into a mostly quiet 2018 Legislative Session with just a few weeks to go until Sine Die in late March, when bills must be signed by midnight or they are dead for the year. This year's legislative session is full of bills pertinent to staff, students and the Georgia Southern University community as a whole. Full Story.

GS calls for students to report unreported crimes

The Public Safety Clery Compliance and Records Management is asking for students and staff to relay any unreported crimes from 2017 in compliance with the Clery Act. The deadline to submit these incidents is June 1, said PSCC and Records manager Rebecca Rhinehart.
